Why Not Learn Something New Today?

Have you always thought that you could write a novel or screenplay? Do you want to be a more effective manager, or just learn how to take a decent picture? Why not explore the over 500 classes available to you online through Universal Class? With nothing more than your home computer and a Westhampton Free Library card you can embark on a path to personal enrichment that you thought you didn't have time for. The "Continuing Education Units" you earn might even be applicable to your job! Real instructors will help you on this self-paced, instructor-led courses. Whether you want to brush up on your math skills for work, or learn how to bake a pie, Universal Class has something for you.

Homework Help Day @ The Westhampton Free Library!

Homework Help K-12

The Westhampton Free Library is hosting Homework Help Day on Monday September 26 to showcase the live tutoring help available to cardholders at the county's digital branch: www.Live-brary.com.

By clicking the menu tab Live Study Help/K- 12 on the Live-brary.com website, students gain access to free interaction with licensed and trained tutors ready to help them brush up, stay on top of, or get in front of class work.

From 4 to 8 pm on the 26, the Westhampton Free Library will hold demonstrations on obtaining live tutoring help in:

- Math
- Science
- Reading/Writing
- Social studies
- and general skills building

Live tutoring help is available online Monday – Sunday from 2 to 11 pm, excluding some holidays. As the school year progresses, tutors also offer assistance in prepping for PSAT/SAT, ACT, AP and state standardized tests. A 24-hour Writing Lab allows students to submit essays and other forms of writing for constructive feedback in as little as one day.

September/October Adult Programs

Registration begins Thursday, September 1 at 9:30 am. Registration is required for all programs unless otherwise noted.

"EVERYONE MUST TAKE TIME TO SIT AND WATCH THE LEAVES TURN."
-ELIZABETH LAWRENCE

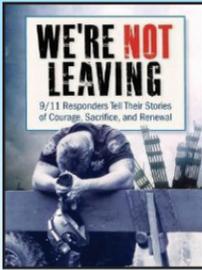

We're celebrating the mysteries of history at the library this month, from Family History (October is Family History Month) to Greek Mythology in the Children's Department. We hope you'll join us for the Special Events we have planned! See you here!

PROGRAM REGISTRATION FOR ALL PROGRAMS BEGINS ONLINE AND AT THE LIBRARY ON THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1 at 9:30am

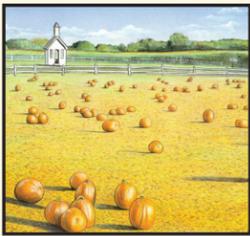

Unless otherwise noted, registration is required for all programs and Westhampton Library Cardholders have first priority.

REMEMBERING 9/11: MEET A HERO:

Thursday, September 8 @ 6 pm. Marty Carrano was among the first responders when the towers fell on September 11, 2001. He will be joining us as we screen a short film about 9/11 and will speak about his experience. We hope you will join us. (For more information go to: <http://www.911respondersremember.org/>) WHA171

ART GALLERY AT THE LIBRARY:

In September, we welcome Long Island artist Tom Casper with a display of his mixed media illustrations created using air brush, water colors and colored pencils.

During the month of October, photographer Miranda Gatewood will present a solo exhibition of color landscape photographs with an October theme. She is a 2011 recipient of a NYFA grant.

MUSIC:

Tickets are required for all music events and may be reserved at the library.

JIA-YI HE IN CONCERT:

Sunday, October 23 @ 2 pm. Jia-Yi He, a world-class harmonica virtuoso, has received awards in international festivals and competitions in England, Germany, Israel, Japan and the U.S. He has performed with the Royal College of Music in London to the General Assembly of the United Nations 60th Anniversary Concert to America's Got Talent and is one of the best known tremolo harmonica musicians in the world. Reserve your tickets now! WHA172

COOKING AND CRAFTS:

BLOCK ISLAND SEAFOOD COMPANY PRESENTS CHOWDER AND MUSSELS:

Thursday, October 27 @ 7 pm. Join the Block Island Seafood company for a demonstration of their New England clam chowder and steamed Prince Edward Island mussels. These recipes will get you ready for the chilly nights ahead! Delicious tastings included, of course. Registration required. WHA173

EDIBLE HAUNTED HOUSE:

Saturday, October 29 @ 1:00pm. It's delicious fun for the whole family. Create your own frighteningly tasty edible haunted house! $10.00 per house per family to register. WHA174

BOOKS AND AUTHORS:

Registration recommended for all Books and Authors programs.

PERFORMANCE POETRY ASSOCIATION:

Wednesday, September 21 @ 7 pm. We are delighted to welcome the Performance Poets Association, a forum for local Long Island artists to bring original poetry and related arts to the public. Award-winning poet Joan Magiet will read before introducing featured poet Tammy Nuzzo Morgan, followed by open readings. WHA175

STEPHANIE COWELL:

Friday, September 30 @ 6:30pm. Stephanie Cowell's most recent book, Claude and Camille: A Story of Monet, was published to critical and popular acclaim. Susan Vreeland said, "Be prepared to marvel, and to weep" and the Boston Globe wrote, "Cowell is nothing short of masterful in writing about Claude Monet's life and love... An enthralling story, beautifully told." WHA176

LEE MCALLISTER:

Wednesday, October 5 @ 7 pm. Lee McAllister is the author of two books on hiking, Hiking The Catskills and Hiking Long Island, as well as a naturalist, photographer and guide. He is currently active in scouting, blazing and maintaining the 125 mile long Paumanok Path from Rocky Point to Montauk Point. Join us as he reveals the secrets and wonders that make hiking Long Island amazing in any season. WHA177

SPECIAL EVENTS:

October is the month for Halloween – and also for Family History. We're hosting several events to explore the mysteries of history – family and otherwise. (And check out the September 30th author visit from historical novelist Stephanie Cowell, too!)

INTRODUCTION TO GENEALOGY RESEARCH:

Sunday, October 2 @ 2pm. Genealogy Librarian Toni Raptis will present a workshop on how to research your family's history, including an overview of the many resources available, as well as a look at the databases and websites that can enhance your searches. Start here to begin growing your family tree! WHA178

EDDIE AND JEAN COSTELLO'S

ANTIQUES ROADSHOW:

Sunday, October 9 at 2 pm. Does your family history include strange objects in the attic or basement? Inherited items about which you have questions? Eddie and Jean Costello will discuss those family heirlooms and what they might be worth. The first 40 people to register will receive tickets entitling them to a free appraisal of one item. WHA179

MODEL SHIPWRIGHT DANIEL PARISER:

Saturday, October 15 @ 1pm. If you have admired the beautiful model ships made by Ripley Ropes on display at the library, or appreciate or are curious about the art and craft of a shipwright, you'll want to reserve your tickets early for this special program. Daniel Pariser, who has been the conservator of ship models at South Street Seaport Museum, Christie's Auction House and the FDR Presidential Library, also restored our wonderful model ships. He will discuss our collection, as well as the history of the ships depicted, how they were translated into models, the damages the models suffered, and how they were restored to their present condition. Don't miss it! WHA180

ANCESTRY.COM MASTER

CLASS: Thursday, October 20 from 2-4 pm. This amazing database is the world's largest online family history resource and it's available at your library. Learn how to navigate your family tree and streamline your historical/genealogical research with this introductory class in our computer lab. Registration is required. WHA181

FRIDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES – ANIMAL

HOUSE: Friday, October 21 @ 7 pm. Our own wacky tribute to history and togas – a screening of the 1978 classic Animal House! Wear togas or frat attire (we recommend the book Items From Our Catalogue if you need pointers) and win a prize for best costume. And of course, toga-worthy treats will be served. (This movie is rated R) Registration requested. WHA182

GRAVEYARD WALK:

Sunday, October 30 @ 2pm at Westhampton Cemetary: Join the Westhampton Beach Historical Society for a tour of the rich and poor, famous and infamous buried in Westhampton Cemetary - and meet some of the residents! For all ages. Registration required. WHA195

ROUTES AND POSSIBLE FUTURE OF THE UPRISINGS IN THE ARAB WORLD.

Sunday, September 25 at 2:00pm. The Library presents noted Egyptian International Peacemaking Speaker, and renowned geologist, Dr. Emad Ramzy Philobos, who will discuss Egypt and the Arab Spring.

MUSEUM PASSES:

Use your library card to reserve a pass to one (or all) of these great museums and educational resources: The Museum of Natural History in New York City, the Intrepid in New York City, the American Museum of Art, History and Carriages in Stony Brook, the Children's Museum in Bridgehampton (and right down the street) the Museum of the South Fork, and the Parrish Art Museum in Southampton. Check at the Reference Desk for more details.
